KINO ASYL

10 training places in the field of film and culture

Become a curator for the Munich film festival KINO ASYL!

KINO ASYL is a festival with films from the home countries of young refugees living in Munich. The festival is organised by curators with refugee experience and supported by experts from the fields of culture and media.

Who are we looking for?

Young people with refugee experience who

- would like to participate in a film festival
- are interested in film and culture
- would like to share their stories and topics

No previous experience is necessary!

What can you expect?

- The opportunity to present films from your home country or culture
- Space for your creativity & the opportunity to shape a festival
- Workshops and support with film selection, moderation and festival organisation
- Collaboration with a creative and diverse team
- Insights into festival and cultural work

Project period:

May to November 2026 approx. 8 working meetings, 6 festival days in November

Registration: by 15 May 2026
